Team Shooting Gallery

Have a stroll down our version of the boardwalk and enjoy some good old-fashioned arcade fun (with some modern updates). Firing a variety of airsoft replicas, you'll test your marksmanship and enjoy a little friendly competition. Each team will strategize for maximize scores in the shooting gallery or even the "long shot" with the sniper rifle. You will absolutely strengthen relationships as you rely on each other to get things done.

This new take on an old classic is ideal for teams that want to enhance:

- Strategic Thinking. Leverage your team's best thinking to develop a winning strategy.
- Collaboration. Take advantage of each team member's strengths to execute your strategy.
- Trust. No one can take all the shots. You'll need to rely on one another to succeed.

We know the importance of a truly cohesive team. A positive environment is crucial to meeting goals, increasing sales, and building culture. That's why our team-building activities are fun and engaging; but they're also opportunities for your people to learn from each other. Each experience will strike the right balance of entertainment and learning—in alignment with your organization's unique needs.
